Philosophy

Our program is designed to help children develop a positive self-image within an environment that encourages physical, social, emotional, and intellectual growth.

Purpose

- Provide day care services for teen parents pursuing their high school education and graduate
- Promote the healthy development of the infants/toddlers
- Promote parenting skills and parent/child relationships
- Network with agencies providing services to teenage parents
- Discourage repeat pregnancies

Your infant/ toddler will have an excellent learning experience while you attend school. You can be earning your high school diploma while your infant/toddler is being taken care of by a certified staff of District 205. We are also a DCFS licensed Day Care Center.

Bus service for you and your child to and from your home school is provided.
